

SOUTH RICHMOND

CHESTERFIELD FAIR

TO BE HELD THIS WEEK

Choicest Products of Famous County
Will Be Placed on Exhibition.

POLLARD TO ADDRESS SCHOOL

Grand Jury in Chesterfield Will Make
Vigorous Probe of Alleged Tax
Dodging—New Court Term Opens
To-Morrow.

Arrangements are being completed for the Chesterfield County Fair, which will be held on Thursday and Friday at Chesterfield Courthouse. The buildings on the grounds have been repaired and overhauled, and are all ready to house the best of the agricultural products produced in the county. Everything has been arranged on a more elaborate scale this year, and the fair promises to be the most successful ever held.

A varied list of entries has been received by the Fair Association, ranging from the stockiest Berkshire hog to the most toothsome jar of preserves put up by one of the amateur club girls. The Boy's Corn Club has an excellent exhibit, for which a handsome prize is offered. The choicest products from the Belwood Farm, which were a feature at the Virginia State Fair, will be exhibited.

To lovers of horsemanship an interesting display will be seen. Prizes are offered for riding, driving and draft horses, and a number of excellent animals have been entered in each class.

Pollard to Speak.
Interesting exercises will be held this morning in Stockton Street Baptist Church in celebration of Rally Day. Attorney-General John Garland Pollard will be the principal speaker, while short talks will be made by the pastor, Rev. H. B. Jordan, and Superintendent Thomas Morton, of the Sunday school department.

Fined for Assault.
Louis Powell and Robert Powell, young white men, were fined $10 by Justice H. A. Maurice yesterday morning in Police Court, Part II, on the charge of assaulting and threatening to kill Oscar Maynard. Maynard was not badly injured.

Continue Tax Probe.
The grand jury will meet again to-morrow morning in Chesterfield Circuit Court for the purpose of continuing the examination into the cases of a number of alleged delinquents and tax dodgers. The revenue in the county this year is said to be not as large as it should be, and a vigorous probe is being made into the matter under the directions of Judge Robert G. Southall. Last year property was found to the extent of $150,000, which had not been declared.

Judgment for Plaintiff.
Judgment in the sum of $125 was awarded by a jury yesterday in Chesterfield Circuit Court in the suit of the Christo Manufacturing Company against J. W. Cummings.

New Term Begins.
A new term of court will begin to-morrow in Hustings Court, Part II, the September term having ended on Friday. Judge Ernest H. Wells will set a civil docket of several hundred cases, but there will be no grand jury.

To Speak on War.
In connection with the European war, Rev. Wesley Baker will preach on "Our New World" at the evening service in Porter Street Presbyterian Church. His morning theme will be "Called to Freedom."

Increase Building Fund.
From the oyster supper given on Thursday night by the Ladies' Aid Society, a large sum was raised, and the building fund of the Woodland Heights Methodist Church was considerably increased. Preparations will soon be made for the building of a new church.

Engagement Announced.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] BLACKSTONE, VA., October 16.—A luncheon was given on Thursday by Mrs. Wilfred G. Epes at her beautiful home in Blackstone, at which she announced the approaching marriage of Miss Julia Pegram Bagley to Louis Spencer Epes, which will take place on November 5.

The house was beautifully decorated with potted plants and masses of yellow dahlias. A four-course luncheon was served at noon.

The guest consisted of the bridesmaids and members of the immediate families of bride and groom-to-be. Among those present were: Miss Julia Pegram Bagley, Mrs. Isham Bagley, mother of the bride-to-be; Mrs. Theodore P. Epes, mother of the groom-to-be; Miss Marie Bagley, of Norfolk; Miss Mary Epes, Miss Mary Hardy, Miss Louise Adams, Miss Pansy Seay, Miss Mary Irving, of Lexington; Mrs. A. T. McHenry, of Petersburg; Mrs. H. C. Rice, Mrs. William Hetherington, Mrs. E. G. Bagley, Mrs. Richmond Dillard and Mrs. W. P. Bagwell.

Miss Bagley is the daughter of the late Isham Bagley, of Lancaster County, and Mrs. Susan Seay Bagley, but with her mother, has been living in Blackstone for several years. She is widely known in Virginia and North Carolina. Mr. Epes is the son of the late Rev. Theodore P. Epes, D. D., and Mrs. Joanna Tyler Epes, and is an attorney at law at this place.

SAGE TEA PUTS LIFE
AND COLOR IN HAIR

Don't Stay Gray! It Darkens
So Naturally That Nobody Can Tell.

You can turn gray, faded hair beautifully dark and lustrous almost overnight if you'll get a 50-cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" at any drug store. Millions of bottles of this old, famous Sage Tea Recipe are sold annually, says a well-known druggist here, because it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that no one can tell it has been applied.

Those whose hair is turning gray, becoming faded, dry, scraggly and thin have a surprise awaiting them, because after one or two applications the gray hair vanishes and your locks become luxuriantly dark and beautiful—all dandruff goes, scalp itching and falling hair stops.

This is the age of youth. Gray-haired, unattractive folks aren't wanted around, so get busy with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, and you'll be delighted with your dark, handsome hair and your youthful appearance within a few days.—Advertisement.
